

A Northwest Soup Tradition Widely recognized as one of the finest food purveyors in the country, Ivar's Soup & Sauce Company produces top-quality seafood soups, and sauces at our state-of-the-art facility in Mukilteo, Washington. Our soup tradition began in 1938 when Ivar Haglund began making and selling his homemade clam chowder on the Seattle waterfront. Today, along with our original line of Ivar's seafood soups and chowders, we produce a selection of original, non-seafood recipes and new classics. Ivar's also develops custom soups for restaurants and food-service companies, and they're all made with the same tradition of quality that has made us famous since 1938.
